Message from the CEO: Thank You for an Incredible Year

Dear Partners,

During what is already a busy holiday season for our industry, I want to take a moment to share my gratitude for this past year and optimism for the season ahead.

Thanks to the innovation exemplified by Alberta's tourism industry, we're well on track to double the value of our visitor economy by 2035. And we couldn't do it without all of you, here on Team Alberta.

New tourism insights show strong domestic recovery

While labour challenges persist, Alberta's tourism industry continues to show signs of recovery. Domestic recovery remains stronger than international recovery at this time, with air passenger volumes from most provinces in Canada surpassing pre-pandemic levels this fall.

Access the latest key tourism insights to help you make better business decisions, including hotel occupancy, visitation, air access and more.
